THE PROGRAM

Bremen is a charming, 1,200 year-old harbor city that has a tradition of opening its doors to the world and looking to the future. This vibrant city of half a million multi-ethnic inhabitants is renowned for its tolerant, comfortable lifestyle. Bremen caters to many tastes, providing clubs or live music venues, restaurants, cafés, museums, art galleries, cinemas and theatres.

Jacobs University is positioned within easy reach of the city center and its many scenic attractions. The public transportation system makes it easy and affordable to reach any part of the city and its surroundings.

Jacobs University is an international and highly selective residential university located in Northern Bremen. The diversity of its student body is astonishing: 75% of students are international, representing more than 95 nations. Both academically and socially the Jacobs community has a lot to offer - there is always something going on.
