THE PROGRAM

Wales has everything to offer a student looking for adventure and a real cultural difference. From Snowdonia National Park in the north to the Gower Peninsula in the south, Wales has some of the most striking scenery in Britain. In this green and mountainous country, you can be intrigued by the Arthurian legend—Wales has more castles per square mile than any other European country.

AREAS OF STUDY

Biological Sciences, Business, Chemistry, Computer Science, Economics, Engineering, History, Languages, Math, Media Studies, Music, Nursing, Physics, Politics and International Relations, Psychology, Sociology and Anthropology, Sports Science and more.

Classes are called “modules” in the UK, and “course” typically refers to a student’s degree program.
